

Canvas Tips for Students

Quizzes

Your Canvas course may include quizzes or exams. In this tutorial, we will refer to both types of tests as quizzes.

Your professor may place quizzes in modules. He or she may also enable the Quizzes link in the navigation bar. In either view, you can see the due date and points value.

Final note: Some quizzes may require proctored testing. These quizzes may be proctored at Brookdale's testing center, any of the Higher Education Centers, or other approved proctored location. These quizzes will not open in a typical web browser like Chrome or Firefox; a message like the one shown appears if you try to launch such a quiz in a typical browser. Your professor will inform you if proctored quizzes are required.
